

African Careers Expo

An event for young African Australians

Come and meet representatives from organisations,
companies, universities and TAFE institutions.

Discover a range of career options

Talk to people about working in different jobs

Find out about courses and study options

What is SAYAG?

SAYAG is a group of hopeful and passionate young Sudanese Australians based in Victoria, who are committed to creating and leading community change for all African young people.

Open to All African community members.
Other communities are also welcome.

Venue Multicultural Hub,
506 Elizabeth Street, Melbourne (opposite the Queen Victoria Market)

When Saturday 27th of October 2012
11am-4pm

Cost Free - All materials will be provided

For more information contact Victor Victor via phone on 0452 642 842 or Asunta Akeri on 0411 583 598

SUPPORTED BY